TEXAS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

House Membership

Representative Joseph E. Moody

Biographical Information

Representative-Elect Joseph "Joe" Moody comes to Austin as a second generation public servant. His father, District Judge William Moody and his mother, Magdalena Morales-Moody, an El Paso school teacher have instilled in Joe the value of community service and respect for the laws of Texas. Joe was born and raised in El Paso and is a lifelong resident of District 78. As a prosecutor in the District Attorney's office, he serves the public in the courtroom by giving a voice to the victims of domestic violence, burglary and those affected by drunk drivers.

Joe's life-long work with families and organizations in his community inspired him to run for office so he could better serve El Pasoans. He is ready to represent the community with the same passion, energy and enthusiasm he's offered El Paso throughout his life.

Joe has been an advocate in his community, the voice of justice in the courtroom, and now he is El Paso's newest Texas State House of Representative.
